Coronavirus Update

These past several months have been a changing experience for many businesses, and McCourt is no exception. We have had to adapt the way we do business in order to keep our customers and employees safe. Here is an update on what we are doing to stop the spread of COVID-19:

- We are not allowing any outside visitors into our plant. We have curtailed in-person meetings with customers and coworkers and have started doing more virtual and phone conversations.
- Everyone working on premises must wear a mask along with performing rigorous hand washing.
- To maintain social distancing, some McCourt employees work from home on certain days, and alternate with the others on their sales teams.
- Upon entering the building, all employees must have their temperature taken and fill out a form to ensure they are not experiencing any symptoms.
- We have instituted a strict cleaning regimen throughout the entire McCourt building. All commonly-touched items are sanitized frequently.

McCourt's employees will continue to do our part to slow the spread of COVID-19. Even though the world has changed in many ways, we still offer the same reliable service as always, and will continue to provide you with the most value for your label applications. Stay safe, and thank you for choosing McCourt as your labeling solutions partner!
